CITY CYCLOPS PRESENTS
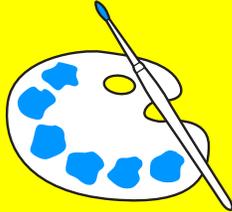

MAKE EVERY DAY FREE COMIC BOOK DAY!

Enjoy the riches of Free Comic Book Day year-round!
No one can stop you.

You'll need the following:

Markers or paint set	12-16 ounces of white-out	Unwanted comic book	Shirt	Glue

STEP 1
After entering your local comic store, locate the comic you wish to acquire. Apply white-out to the cover of the unwanted comic until the entire image is obscured.

STEP 2
Using markers, paint, or whatever medium you feel most comfortable with, recreate the cover of the desired comic on the obscured one. Then put the forgery in place of the original.

STEP 3
Apply white-out to the entire front cover of the soon-to-be free comic. Once dried, draw a replica of whatever appears on the front of your shirt. Be as detailed as possible.
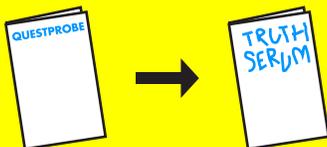

STEP 4
Glue the disguised comic to the front of your shirt. The rendered image will act as a camouflage. Offer a wave and friendly smile to the cashier as you walk quickly but confidently out the door.
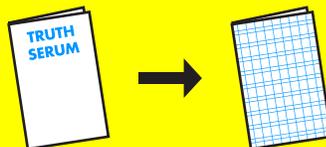

HELPFUL TIPS
1. Avoid prolonged exposure to white-out fumes. They may cause pleasant feelings, but contribute to poor decision making.

2. If anyone asks why you've been hunched over in the corner for an hour, offer a reply such as, "shut up" or "huh?"

3. To avoid suspicion that you may be shoplifting, wear bicycle shorts. This will show you have little to hide.

4. If the suggested supplies are unavailable, a firearm may prove equally effective.
